The curtain goes up
We stand uncertainly, questioning
Alone with fears,
Hopes and dreams
Until we encounter each other.
The show progresses
We learn about those around us
And about ourselves
By laughing,
Experiencing and growing,
Like a bud
Opening into
A beautiful rose

The stage lights dim
We know that our show
Will soon come to a close Reaching forward to new goals, plans, and lives.
Sharing memories, thoughts and
Perhaps a tear
The curtain goes down.

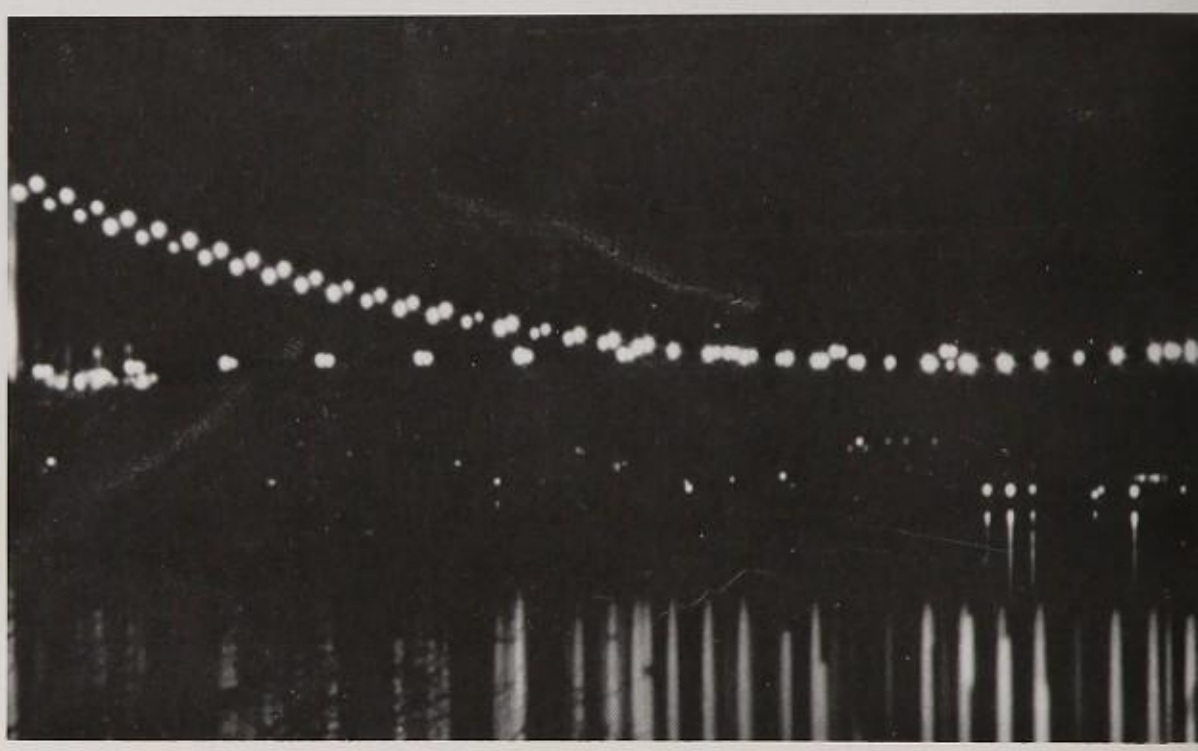
SENIORS



Working together, as a team, we've made these four years a hit. The teachers we have come to love and admire will always be a part of our memories of Preston. We have learned from them and the good friends we have made, how special we can all truly be.

and you'll always be special to us.
May your future be filled with luck and happiness,
Always. Love you,
Mom, Dad, Daniel and Nanny

Dear Anna,
If God would have given us a choice to pick out any baby that we wanted when you were born, we would have picked you. We thank God every day for giving you to us. Always, remember that we love you very much and we are very proud of you. The best of everything always.
All our love — Mom, Dad and Teddy

Dear Cathy,
You were the most joyful baby in our lives.
And the most friendly teenager. Now that life goes,
I wish you all the happiness and success in the future. I am always there for you.
Love you always — Mom, Danny and Dennis

Dear Patricia,
You are the most thoughtful daughter two parents could ever have asked for. From Kindergarten to a Senior at Preston you always made us proud. God bless you in all you ever do.
Love — Mom, Dad, Jimmy and Michael

Dear Jo-Ann, our beautiful daughter,
You have given us so much joy. You are a treasure.
How proud we are of you. We love you so very much.
We will miss you. God bless you, Sweetheart.
All our love,
Mom and Dad

Dear Dina,
You've brought us much happiness just from "You Being You." Don't ever change!
Love and peace in the future.
Congratulations!
With all our love always — Ma and Pa

Mariangela,
You are my only daughter and I am very proud of you.
I love you very much and I wish you health and happiness in all you choose in life.
I know your father would be very proud of you, too.
He prays for you and always watches over you.
The best of luck, always. Love You!
Mommy, Sammy, Benny, Anthony and Joey

To our daughter Elena (Pumpkin)
We'll always love you as we did yesterday, today and tomorrow. May your future bring you good health and much happiness.
Love,
Mom and Dad and your brother Christopher

Dear Laura,
You've come a long way baby!
Keep on the upswing.
Congratulations!
All our love, all your life,
Mom, Dad, Chrissy and Grandpa

To our beautiful and lovely twin daughters Tara and Toni,
The Dear Lord really blessed us twice when He sent both of you to join our family. You made our lives full of happiness and laughter. We are extremely proud and wish both of you to stay as vivacious, sweet and lovely as you are. We love you both very/very much and we will always be here if you need us.
Congratulations, much happiness and success.
Love — Mom and Dad.

Dear Maria,
May God grant a "Beautiful Life" to our very "Special Daughter".
Love and Happiness,
Mom and Dad

Dear Nancy,
You have always brought me joy and happiness,
I'm so proud of you. I know you will be successful in whatever you do. I love you so, so much.
You light up my life!
Mommy

Ann,
You've come a long way baby!
Loving you is the best part of our lives,
you have always made us very proud of you.
So shine our star. God bless and Good luck!
Love — Mom, Dad, J. J. and John

Joyce,
You have added so much joy to our lives by just being you.
Your thoughtful, kind and loving ways have made you not only special but unique. You will always be so important to all of us. Go catch the moonbeam you so deserve!
Love — Mom, Dad and Carolyn

To My Nannynette,
A beauty on her own — even then
A beautiful young lady — more so now.
Go for it! Conquer the world —
You've got more than it takes!
Love you too much. Mom

"Go for it," Lorraine
You make us proud to have a daughter like you.
Love,
Mom and Dad

Dear Rosalie,
"Special" is the word that describes you.
Enjoy every new adventure and challenge.
Look out world, here she comes!
We love you,

Julie Ann,
Reach for the Stars . . .
From your first step, I knew you were great.
May God walk with you, always.
Love,
Mommy, Ann Marie and Angela

My dearest Caroline,
I am so proud to watch you grow from a babe into a young miss in high school . . . and still have more to go. I wish you all the best in the future, hoping you will reach your goals in life. And may your every dream come true.
Love — Mom

Dear Pammy,
Charles Dickens wrote, "A loving heart is the truest wisdom." You have always been wise beyond your years. As you graduate and accept the challenges of the future, may your sensitive and loving heart continue to color everything you do. Thank you for being, "Pam." Congratulations on a job well done.
With much pride, respect and prayers for your happiness —
Loving you — Mommy

Dear Rosanna,
You'll always be our little girl.
We love you! XOX
Mommy and Daddy

Dear Beauty — Ann Marie,
Always keep your sense of humor, my heart.
You are the last, but not the least.
You are the MOST!! I love you.
Remember your best friend,
Mom

We, the Senior Class, would like to thank our families and friends for their support throughout the years. You have turned us into the stars we are today.

THE WORLD'S A STAGE!

1985 was the worst year in history for air fatalities, famine stalked millions in East Africa, and no cure had yet been found for the lethal disease AIDS.

Still 1985 had its redeeming features, large and small: the Live Aid concerts, with an audience of a billion plus, to help Africa's starving; the athletes overtaking records; the winning smiles on the faces of a young princess and a recuperating President.

Soviet Leader Mikhail Gorbachev during Geneva summit

"If we really want to succeed, both sides are going to have to do an awful lot of work."

Christa McAuliffe

1948-1986

"She wanted women to do more, to learn more." She wanted everyone to learn more, including herself. "What are we doing here? We're reaching for the stars," she said after entering the astronaut program. Despite her newfound celebrity, McAuliffe never doubted that following her sojourn in space she would return to Concord, to the family she would have been away from for many months and, above all, to her classroom. She told an audience last August, "I touch the future. I teach." ■

"What are we doing here? We're reaching for the stars."

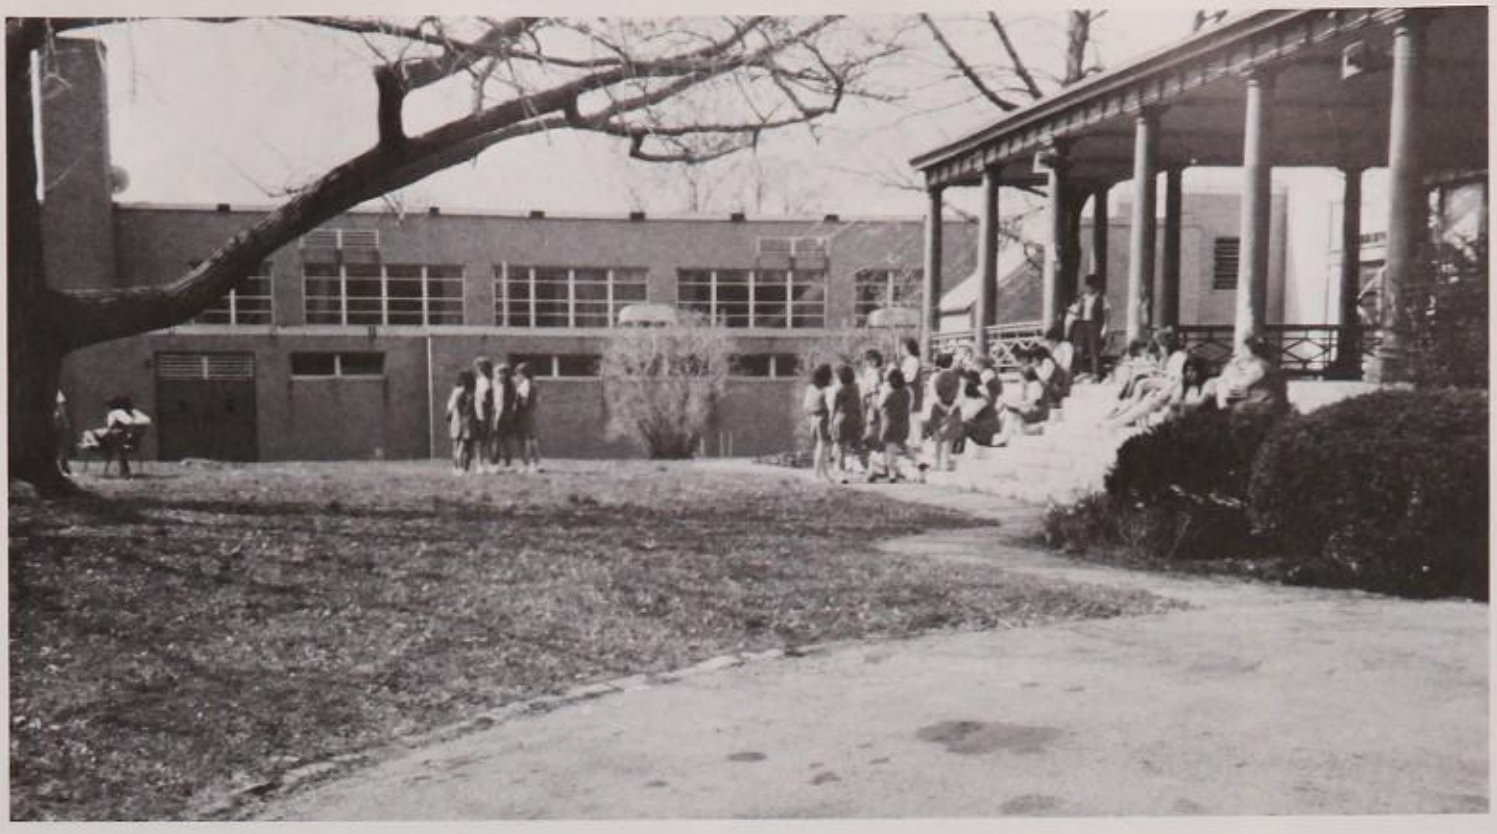
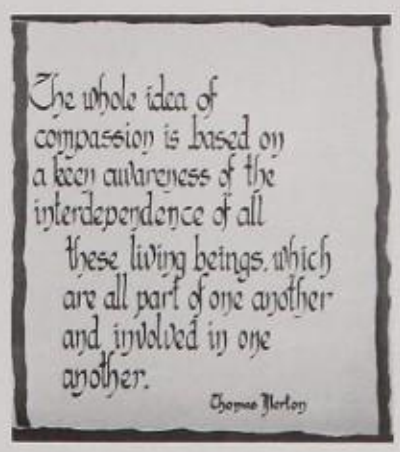
Sisters of the Divine Compassion
Celebrating 100 years of Ministry



As needs changed the ministry of caring for young girls at the House of the Holy Family came to an end. The Sisters accepted the challenge to create a high school which would bear the name Preston High School in honor of their founder Msgr. Thomas S. Preston. Their courage and creativity was a tribute to the founder's constant willingness to adapt, change and respond to new needs.

Mother Mary Veronica, R.D.C.
Msgr. Thomas S. Preston



Among the Prestonites who had the unique opportunity to be involved in the Presidential Classroom in Washington D.C. was senior Casey Cheevers. The Presidential Classroom is a nonprofit organization which offers young adults an opportunity to learn and understand the ideals and concepts of our government. "It was intriguing to receive a first-hand view of political life in Washington. I have learned that we are a truly diversified nation and it is this diversity that adds to the uniqueness of our country," said Casey. Also participating in the Presidential Classroom were: Seniors, Eileen Slevin, Nancy Siklos and Juniors, Camille Quartone and Rachel Quaratino.

love you always!

After the performance, after the applause, when the show is over and the curtains close, the actress stands on the stage in the darkness of the empty theatre. She holds in her arms her bouquet of roses, the sweet scent fills her with unbounded joy.

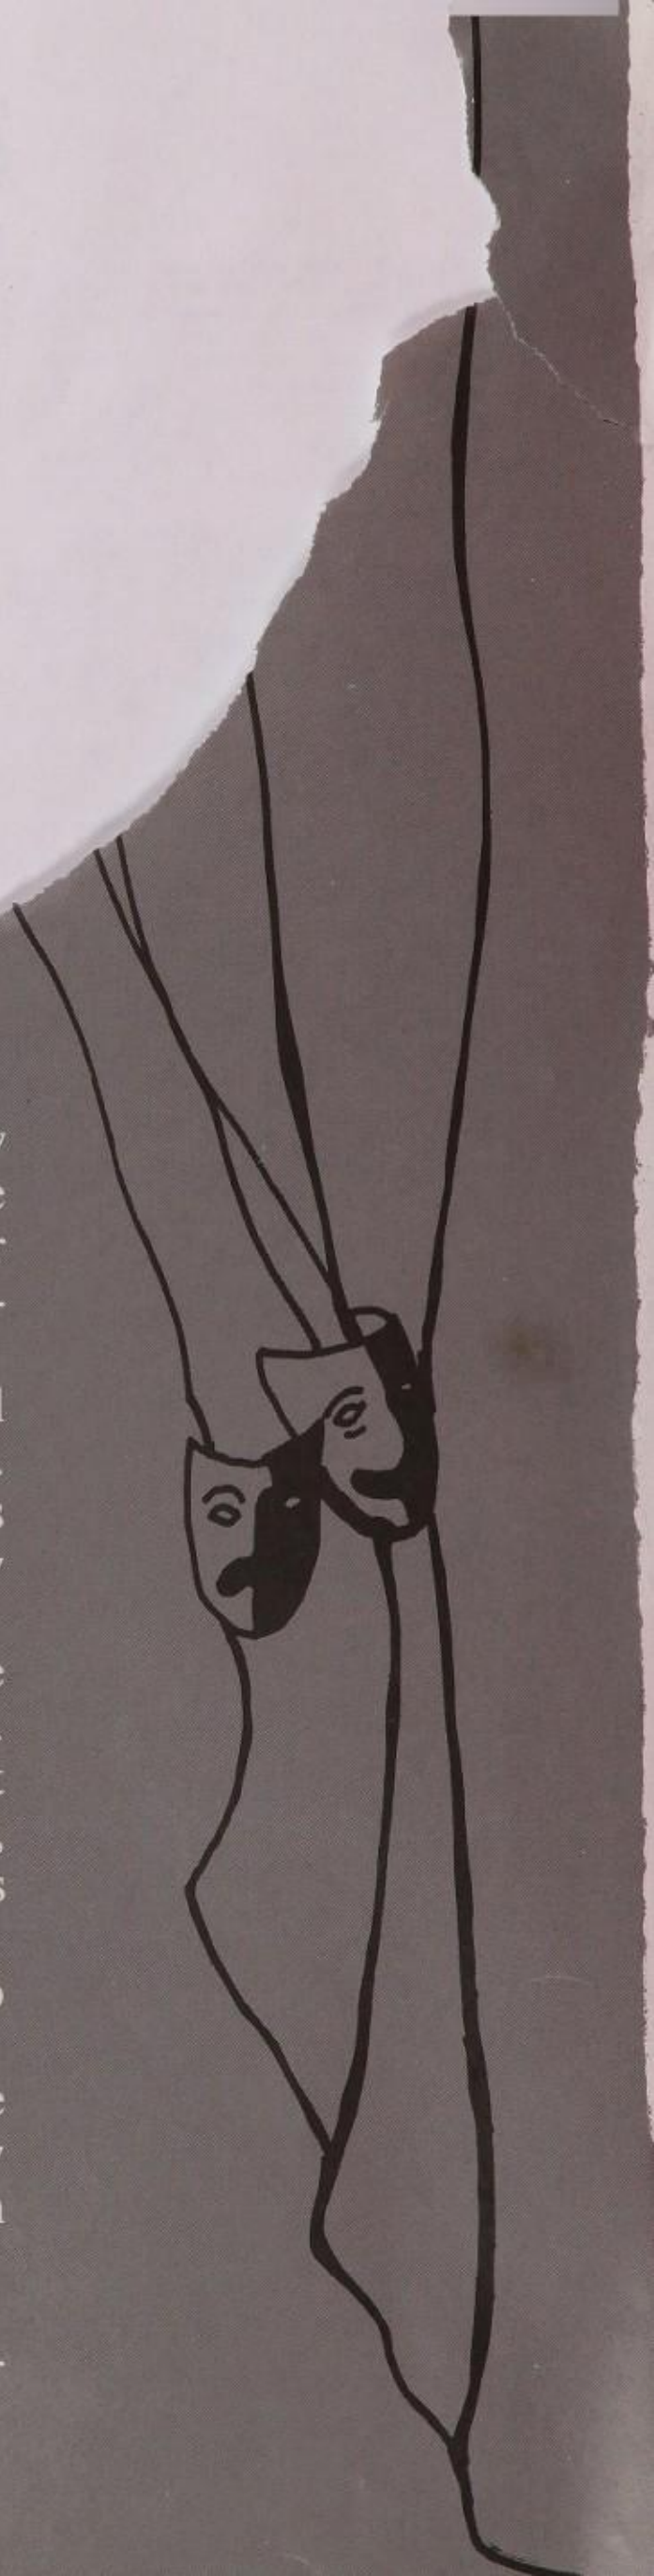
She breathes a sigh of relief. In a way, she is glad it is all over; all the work, all the long hours, all the rehearsing. Then she smiles and laughs inside, she suddenly remembers all the fun. The friends she made and the happy days they shared outweigh, by far, the difficult times.

It was hard to make a "grand entrance" the first year she was here, but she learned her lines and made it through. The second year, all her anxieties subdued, she got caught up in the excitement of being a part of the show. Last year, she knew she was just a step from the applause she receives today.

Now her time here has come to an end and she'll go to another theatre or maybe something totally different.

The actress knows leaving won't be easy, but the love that's been shared between herself and these incredibly special people will keep the memories alive . . . for an eternity.

Ann Marie Zerrenner



Dear Jeanine,
